WILLIAM CLAY FORD
President

William Clay Ford combines his duties as President of the Detroit Football Co. with those of Vice-President of the Ford Motor Company.

FORD

Ford's duties with the auto firm cover product planning and styling, and he is responsible for the coordination and review of all the company's forward product programs.

Ford, 38, is serving his third year as president of the Lions after being elected to the post in January, 1961, following the resignation of Edwin J. Anderson. Anderson still retains his position as General Manager and continues direction of the club on a day-to-day basis.

Ford has been a director of the Detroit Football Company since 1956. He is the grandson of the late Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Co. and the youngest of four children of the late Edsel B. Ford.

A graduate of Yale University in 1949, Ford has held positions in sales and advertising and in industrial relations, and was general manager of the Continental Division before assuming his present duties at the company staff level in 1956. He has been a member of the Ford Motor Co. board of directors since 1948.

An avid sports enthusiast, Ford played varsity tennis and soccer at Yale and is a member of the Country Club of Detroit.

In addition to his duties with the Ford Motor Co., since 1951, Mr. Ford has been president of the Edison Institute, which operates the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village in Dearborn, Mich. He is secretary-treasurer of the Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, president of the Edsel B. Ford Institute for Medical Research, and a trustee of the Michigan Heart Association. He has been national campaign chairman of the United Cerebral Palsy Association four times and is a director of the United Foundation, having served as 1953 chairman of its major industry unit.

Ford is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio, and they have daughters, Martha, Sheila, Elizabeth and one son, William Clay, Jr. The Fords live in Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan. He was born March 14, 1925.

EDWIN J. ANDERSON

General Manager

The 1963 season will be Andy Anderson's sixth year as general manager of the Detroit Lions but it will be his 16th year of association with the club.

ANDERSON

Anderson was part of the original group of Detroit leaders who purchased the franchise in 1948 from Fred Mandel. He was elected president of the company in 1949 and held the post until January, 1961, when he resigned the dual role of president and general manager to concentrate on the GM's duties. Following his resignation, William Clay Ford was elected to the post.

Through the years, the Detroit franchise has become one of the National Football League's most valuable assets, and a lot of credit can be given to the work and leadership of E. J. Anderson.

Anderson developed his interest in athletics by playing all sports at Rockford, Illinois high school. He continued his football at Beloit College at a time when the little Wisconsin school was playing a tough schedule which included such powers as Notre Dame, coached by Knute Rockne.

After college, Anderson entered the advertising field and later held executive positions at Marshall Field in Chicago and with the Hiram Walker Co. before he joined the Goebel Brewing Co. as vice president in charge of sales. He was named president of the brewery in 1941, while only 38 years of age, and held the position until June of 1958 when he resigned to devote full time to the Lions as president and general manager.

Anderson has an enviable record of civic accomplishment, including the general chairmanship of the 1945 Community Fund, the presidency of the Children's Hospital of Detroit for three years, and the presidency of the Birmingham Community Center for two years. He still is a member of the board of the Lumberman's Mutual Casualty Company and the American Motorist Insurance Company.

Anderson lives in Bloomfield Hills, Mich. with his wife, Sunny. They have two daughters, Susan Jane Stenglein of Saginaw, Mich., and Marynell Williams of Birmingham, Mich., and four grandchildren. Anderson was born August 3, 1902.

1963 Detroit Lions Coaching Staff

GEORGE WILSON – Head Coach

The big prize that has eluded the Detroit Lions the past three years, a Western Conference title, is George Wilson's goal for 1963.

The Detroit Lions have finished second and won the Playoff Bowl three straight years, 17-16 over Cleveland in '61, 38-10 Philadelphia in '62 and 17-10 over Pittsburgh in '63, but Wilson and his staff want "the big one that got away" this season.

Wilson is in his seventh season as head coach of the Lions, after taking over the top spot just two days before the opening of the pre-season campaign in 1957, when Buddy Parker suddenly resigned. The team responded to the change and went out to win the NFL title with a sensational 59-14 decision over Cleveland, after tying San Francisco in the regular season race and coming through with a 31-27 playoff victory.

The team suffered through injuries and personnel shortages to win only seven games in 1958 and 1959. The Lions have been real contenders the last three seasons, compiling 7-5, 8-5-1, and 11-3 records. The 1962 team lost three games by a mere eight points, while winning more games in a single season than any other Lion team in history.

The 1963 season marks the 27th year in professional football for the personable Wilson. He started with the Chicago Bears as a player in 1937, was a key performer during the glory days of the early '40's, and concluded his active career in 1946 as a player-coach. He remained with George Halas' staff through the 1948 season and came to Detroit in 1949 as an aide to the late "Bo" McMillin. He continued as an assistant under McMillin and then with Parker until 1957, when he took over his first head coaching job and proceeded to win the championship his first year.

Under Wilson, the Lions have become known as a gambling team on the field, with stout defense also playing a big role in battle plans. Wilson also has shown that he will leave no stone unturned in efforts to strengthen his team, as witness the Bobby Layne trade with Pittsburgh, the Jim Ninowski-Milt Plum trade with Cleveland, and numerous other deals through the years.

A native of Chicago, Ill., Wilson attended Northwestern University after attending prep school at St. John's Military Academy. He now resides in Dearborn, Mich. His family includes his wife, Claire, and four children, George 20, a student at Xavier, Lynn, 16, Kathleen, 12, and Laurie, 9. Another daughter, Susan, is married and resides in Dearborn.

Wilson was born Feb. 3, 1914.

Lions 1963 Prospects

How to improve on a 11-3 record and three straight second place Western Conference finishes is the problem facing the Detroit Lions.

The Lions lost three games in '62 by a margin of eight points and went on to capture their third straight Playoff Bowl victory in Miami against Pittsburgh, 17-10, but the top spot has eluded their grasp in each of the last three seasons.

A solid veteran nucleus, plus what appears to be one of the best rookie crops in years, are the big assets that Coach George Wilson and his staff are counting upon to keep the Lions in contention in '63.

Concern over the offensive line seems to be the No. 1 problem facing the staff. With this in mind, Wilson and his aides have designed a new system which will bring the team's most solid offensive blockers into "strong side" positions on every play, operating on the theory that 75% of the team's offense is geared to the strong side attack.

This plan has caused the switch of third year tackle Dan LaRose to offensive guard at the outset, and more switches could be made before the season is too far gone.

Added hope in this department stems from the fact that the Lions draft was aimed primarily at obtaining offensive line performers, of which Daryl Sanders (Ohio State) and Roy Williams (U. of Pacific) are the top hopes.

The overall strength of the defense was hurt by the loss of Alex Karras but Wilson made a trade for veteran Floyd Peters from Cleveland. Peters, along with holdover Mike Bundra, are expected to fill the bill here very adequately.

Several promising rookies seem likely to push veterans from spots on the Lions 37-man roster but it is unlikely that many will find their way into starting positions until they have had a chance to pick up game experience in the early campaign.

OFFENSE

The Lions offense scored 315 points last year but lacked the consistency the staff desired. Quarterback Milt Plum figures to be even better than his '62 production pace in that he is more familiar with his mates and the overall system. He is backed up by Earl Morrall, one of the finest "relief pitchers" in the game.

Detroit needn't take a back seat to any team in the receiving department with Gail Cogdill, Jim Gibbons, Terry Barr, and Pat Studstill on hand. Barr appears to have recovered fully from knee surgery that limited his play after being hurt in the fifth game of the '62 season.

The overall running game figures to be improved with fullback Nick Pietrosante healthy again. Three halfbacks, holdovers Dan Lewis and Tom Watkins, along with rookie Larry Ferguson of Iowa, give top depth here and this could develop into a nifty battle. Rookie fullback Nick Ryder of Miami figures as the top choice to replace Ken Webb, who was traded to Cleveland.

As mentioned, the offensive line should see the most changes. Center Bob Whitlow appears set after a solid '62 performance. John Gordy, Dan LaRose, and 11-year veteran Harley Sewell must be rated top choices in the guard department but they will have to battle holdovers Dick Mills and Paul Ward, and rookie John Gamble to hold their top jobs. Bob Scholtz is expected out of service in time for the regular season and is being counted on to hold down a starting tackle berth, while John Gonzaga must be wary of the threat of 6'7", 275-pound rookie Roy Williams, and Daryl Sanders.

DEFENSE

While the Lions "Fearsome Foursome" is no longer intact, the holdover strength here appears solid, with Darris McCord, Roger Brown, and Sam Williams, giving great support to either sophomore Mike Bundra or trade-acquired Floyd Peters. Lucien Reeburg, a 290-pounder, is rated as a definite prospect here but needs experience.

Linebacking is unquestionably strong with perennial All-Pro Joe Schmidt heading a quartet of seasoned vets, regulars Wayne Walker, and Carl Brettschneider, and reserve Max Messner. Rookies Dennis Gaubatz of LSU and Ernie Clark of Michigan State are rookies with a chance.

The defensive backfield again should be solid veteran but one or two newcomers could edge in as reserves. All-Pros Dick Lane and Yale Lary, along with Dick LeBeau and Gary Lowe are the No. 1 unit returning, with Bruce Maher and sophomore Tom Hall still in the fight for a team spot.

SUMMARY

With a defense that appears to be only slightly less formidable than last year, with the prospect for improved running because of keener competition for positions, with outstanding receivers, with consistent passing, and with a top rookie crop battling for jobs, it appears that the Lions have the makings of another contender in '63.

Added scoring also could be forthcoming from the veteran kicker Jim Martin, who came out of retirement from the coaching ranks. He faces a stern challenge from Wayne Walker for the field goal job, but here again, tough competition should benefit both players.

The Lions hope they can find the right combination to move them up just one notch in the Western Conference standings.

REVIEW OF 1962 DETROIT LIONS SEASON

September 16 — Pittsburgh at Detroit

After a scoreless first quarter, the Lions broke the ice with a touchdown with Milt Plum throwing to Gail Gogdill for one yard. Pat Studstill set up the score with a 34 yard punt return to the Steeler 10.

Pittsburgh tied the score at 7-7 after an 80-yard march, but on the following kickoff, Studstill returned the kick 59 yards and on the second play, Nick Pietrosante ran over right guard for a 22 yard touchdown. The Lions added a third score before the quarter ended on a 21-yard Plum to Cogdill pass at 13:41, the play capping a 60-yard drive in six plays.

Midway through the third stanza, Dan Lewis scored from two yards out to climax a 57 yard drive in eight plays to give Detroit a 28-7 lead.

Two more scores, a one yard smash by Lewis at the end of a 80 yard drive, and a nine yard pass from Plum to Pat Studstill, came in the fourth quarter along with a 44 yard field goal by Wayne Walker.

Plum completed 21 of 30 for 251 yards and three touchdowns.

Lions—45 Steelers—7

September 23 — San Francisco at Detroit

Detroit broke the ice with a 19-yard touchdown from Milt Plum to Terry Barr at 3:58 after a Plum to Cogdill pass for 39 yards had put the ball on the 49ers 25. San Francisco came back with a 78 yard drive in 10 plays with Bill Kilmer passing to Clyde Conner for the six yard TD to tie. After the ensuing kickoff, Walker kicked a 35-yard field goal after the Lions moved from their own 31 to the 49ers 28 and stalled.

A 49er fumble recovery on the 50 gave the Lions their next scoring chance at the start of the second quarter. Plum fired a 25 yard pass to Cogdill at 2:24 to give the Lions a 17-7 lead. The 49ers struck back with a 41-yard field goal (17-10), but on the first play from scrimmage following the kickoff, Plum hit Cogdill with a 72-yard pass to the 49ers one yard ine, and he completed the drive on third down with a one yard pass to Studstill. Halftime score: Detroit—24 San Francisco—10.

The Lions opened up a 31-10 lead after a 71-yard drive after the kickoff. Plum passed to Barr for the 5-yard TD. But the 49ers came back with two TDs to make it 31-24 at the end of the quarter.

The 49ers victory chances collapsed when Bill Kilmer fumbled on the Lion 10 after a 67-yard pass play from John Brodie to start the fourth quarter. Moments later, Yale Lary intercepted a Brodie pass on the 49ers 32 and when Lewis scored from the 1, following a 26-yard interference penalty, the Lions had a commanding 38-24 lead at the 10:01 mark. To top it off, Lewis ran 74 yards for a score at 13:12 to wind up all scoring.

Plum hit 16 of 22 for 272 yards and four touchdowns.

Lions—45 49ers—24

September 30 — Baltimore at Baltimore, Md.

The Lions and Colts battled throughout the first half to a 17-17 tie. Detroit's score came on a 44-yard field goal by Wayne

Walker, an 80-yard pass from Plum to Terry Barr, and a Plum to Pietrosante four yard pass, following an interception by Alex Karras.

After the Colts took a 20-17 edge on a field goal, Milt Plum ran 45-yards with a quarter back sneak on fourth down at the Colt 45 and the Lions took a 24-20 lead they never relinquished. A second Walker field goal in the fourth stanza and a safety when Roger Brown corraled John Unitas in the end zone late in the period, wrapped up the scoring.

Plum hit 16 of 30 for 260 yards and two touchdowns.

Lions—29 Colts—20.

October 7 — Green Bay at Green Bay, Wisconsin

In the first of the titanic struggles, Green Bay scored a 15-yard field goal the first time they had the ball after moving from their own 20 to the Lions 8.

After losing one scoring chance on a blocked field goal, Detroit recovered a Bart Starr fumble on the Packer 34 and moved down to score in six plays, with Dan Lewis moving in from the six, 7-3. Yale Lary intercepted a Tom Moore pass on the Packer 1-yard line to halt another Packer drive.

The Packers got another field goal from the Lion 8-yard line as the third quarter ended and both teams traded missed goal attempts in the fourth quarter.

With Detroit leading 7-6, the Lions took over, after a Packer field goal try was short, on the GB 22. Plum moved the team to the Lions 49, twice completing third down passes to Gibbons to keep the attack moving. With approximately 1:35 remaining, Plum aimed a third down and eight pass to Terry Barr, but Barr slipped on the wet turf, and the pass was intercepted by Herb Adderley and returned to the Detroit 18. Hornung kicked a 21-yard field goal on third down and at 14:27 the Packers had a 9-7 victory.

Green Bay—9 Lions—7

October 14 — Los Angeles Rams at Detroit

Detroit took a 7-0 leading at 6:47 of the first quarter, winding up a 71-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown run by Dan Lewis. Plum passed to Pietrosante twice, and Barr once to pace the drive.

After the Rams got a 49-yard field goal by Dan Villanueva, Detroit matched it with a 43-yarder by Milt Plum (his first) to hold a 10-3 lead at halftime. Another Plum field goal, 31-yards, gave Detroit a 13-3 lead at the end of three quarters.

The Lions threatened early in the fourth quarter but an interception stopped the attack on the Ram 15 and the 47-yard return to the Lion 38 set up the Rams only touchdown moments later when Zeke Bratkowski passed 37 yards to Carroll Dale for 37 yards.

Lions—13 Rams—10

October 21 — New York Giants at New York

The Lions returned the opening kickoff to the 40-yard line and scored on the fifth play on a Milt Plum to Gail Cogdill pass, good for 48 yards. Lions 7, Giants 0. The Giants moved 81 yards, mostly on the ground, to equal things with Tittle scoring at 11:34, 7-7.

After two punt exchanges, the Lions moved from their own 42 and with Pietrosante and Tom Watkins sharing the load, the Lions moved to score in 12 plays, with Watkins going four at 13:59 for the TD. Halftime: Detroit 14, N.Y. 7.

The Giants tied the game 14-14, after blocking a Yale Lary punt and recovering on the Lions 36. A Tittle to King screen pass for 31 yards was the big play. King scored from a yard out at 9:14. 14-14. On the next series, Dick Lynch intercepted a Plum pass on the Giant 49 and returned to the Lions 33. New York moved to the 2, where Don Chandler kicked a nine-yard field goal at 12:25.

New York—17 Lions—14

October 28 — Chicago Bears at Detroit

The Lions defense throttled the Bear attack, limited the Chicagoans to 60 yards rushing and 15 yards passing.

Three field goals by Wayne Walker, 17, 43, 38, and a safety when Alex Karras tackled Bill Wade in the end zone were the Lions scoring plays.

Chicago tallied its field goal in the fourth quarter when LeClerc kicked a 35-yarder.

Detroit—11 Chicago—3

November 4 — Los Angeles Rams at Los Angeles, California

After a scoreless first half, Earl Morrall came off the Lions bench and got a touchdown in the third quarter on a 22 yard pass to Pat Studstill. Studstill's 33-yard punt return set up the play. This gave Lions a 7-3 lead, erasing the Rams 3-0 field goal advantage.

In the fourth stanza, Studstill returned 35 yards to the LA 24 and Wayne Walker kicked a 31-yard field goal at 5:30 for a 10-3 lead. Detroit got two more points when Darris McCord caught Zeke Bratkowski for a safety. 12-3.

November 11 — San Francisco at San Francisco, California

After spotting the 49ers an early score, Detroit got it back when Sam Williams returned an interception 22 yards for a TD. Wayne Walker kicked a 22 yard FG to give the Lions a 10-7 lead. At the end of the first quarter, 49ers were on the Lions five after a 73 yard pass play from Kilmer to Johnson.

San Francisco took the lead 14-10 at 0:37 when Smith scored from the one, but it was short lived as Detroit marched 80 yards in 11 plays to regain the lead, 17-14, and then saw SF tie it with a 11 yard field foal, 17-17. Detroit got a TD at 14:04 after an interception by Dick Lane gave Detroit the ball on the SF 31. Plum fired to Dan Lewis for 34 yards and Pietrosante scored from the one.

An 80-yard, 16-play drive by Detroit gave the Lions a 31-17 lead after 8:00 minutes and when Detroit scored again, following a 91-yard drive in the fourth quarter, with Tom Watkins running 29 yards, the issue was settled, although the 49ers did manage a score to bring the final total to Detroit 38, SF 24.

November 18 — Minnesota Vikings at Minneapolis

After trailing 6-3 at halftime, Detroit used Earl Morrall again to lead the attack, the ace reliefer connected with two passes for touchdowns to Jim Gibbons of 5 yards and 2 yards, for a 17-6 third quarter lead, which held through the game.

Morrall hit 11 of 18 for 137 yards and two TDs'

November 22 — Green Bay at Detroit

In the national TV special, the Lions got revenge against the Green Bay Packers with a sensational 26-14 verdict . . . and the score was not a true indication of the strengths of the two teams.

Milt Plum hit Gail Cogdill with a 33-yard pass the second time the Lions had the ball and Detroit led 7-0. On the third play of the second quarter, Plum again found Cogdill for a 27 yard TD and the Lions led 14-0. Twenty seconds later, Roger Brown broke through and hit Bart Starr and he fumbled on the Packer six, where Sam Williams recovered and ran for a touchdown. Score 21-0. With the ball on the Packer 7, Brown overpowered Starr in the end zone for a safety and the Lions enjoyed a 23-0 margin at halftime. The Packers only scoring chance was a 24-yard field goal attempt from the Lions 31, which Brown blocked.

A Milt Plum 47 yard field goal at 3:39 completed the Lions scoring in the third quarter, although another attempt from the 24 was blocked by the Packers.

Green Bay tallied twice in the fourth quarter, after a Plum pass was intercepted by Quinlan and he fumbled, allowing Willie Davis to score. Later, Earl Morrall fumbled on the 14 and the Packers covered the distance in five plays for a TD.

Detroit—26 Packers—14

December 2 — Baltimore Colts at Detroit

Lions scored early after recovering a fumble on the opening play. Team covered 21 yards on 8 plays with Watkins rushing for a one yard TD. Two interceptions ruined other Lion chances and the halftime score 7-0.

After a scoreless third quarter, with only a missed field goal attempt by Plum as a scoring threat, the Colts tied it up at the :31 mark with a five yard pass from Unitas to Ray Berry. Minutes later, Unitas fired a 50-yard TD pass to Jim Orr to move the Colts into a 14-7 lead, but this was short-lived as Earl Morall came of the bench and directed a 75 yard drive in eight plays and scoring himself on a sneak to again knot the score, 14-14.

A Joe Schmidt interception of a Unitas pass gave the Lions the ball on the Colt 44 and the Lions drove the distance in eight plays, with Morrall passing to Pietrosante for a 12 yard TD at the 13:18 mark.

A typical Unitas drive ended when Dick Lane broke up a pass for Berry in the end zone as the Colts threatened from the Lions 22 as the game ended.

December 9 — Minnesota at Detroit

In a game marked by 16 ball exchanges, nine pass interceptions and seven fumble recoveries, Detroit outscored the Vikings 37-24.

Minnesota led 14-10 at the end of the first quarter, but two Milt Plum TD passes in the second quarter gave the Lions a 24-14 lead, which they never relinquished. The first scoring pass, 20 yards, went to Dan Lewis at 4:51, but a 63-yard completion to Gail Cogdill had put the ball in position. Plum connected for a 11-yarder to Cogdill after the Lions recovered a fumble in the closing minute of the second quarter.

Two more scores, one a 31-yard interception return by Dick LeBeau and the other on a seven yard fumble recovery by Gail Cogdill after Plum had hit Ken Webb for an 18 yard pass gain, wrapped up the Lions scoring.

A safety and a TD by the Vikings in the fourth period ended the loosely played game.

Detroit—37 Vikings—24

December 16 — Chicago Bears at Chicago

A fourth quarter field goal by Roger LeClerc, and a disputed intentional grounding penalty in the final two minutes against Earl Morrall, were the key plays in the 3-0 Bear triumph in the finale.

Detroit had a Milt Plum field goal attempt blocked from the 35 in the first quarter, and another by Plum from the 31 was blocked in the second quarter, while LeClerc missed two.

Plum missed a 26 yard FG attempt in the third quarter in the only scoring threat.

Twice the Lions challenged, once when a Morrall pass was intercepted by Richie Petitbon in the end zone from the Bear 33, and then in the final minutes. With the ball on the Bear 18, Morrall was penalized 15 yards for grounding to the Bear 33. Wilson disputed the play violently but to no avail as Gail Cogdill was downfield and was an eligible receiver, despite the fact the ball did not reach him, as Morrall was in the grasp of a tackler.
